From Jill Sturgis:

My grandfather (Dixie Cobb) moved his family to this area in the late 40's in search of better work/life. He went to work for Cannon Mills in the construction department maintaining and building homes in the Kannapolis area. His brother Jarvis moved here as well. Brother Harvey was here for some time, and was somewhat of a "wild and crazy" fellow. I remember my grandmother (Alma) telling me the story of when they first came here and "Papa" took her to see the house he had bought for them. She was "horrified", she would say it did not have windows, the floors had big cracks in them and the chickens were in the house. After a lot of work, they had a beautiful 2-story home on a hill. Unfortunately, this home burned in the mid 50's, along with all family photos, mementos etc. The family then moved across the road, where most still live today, including myself. Farming was still the biggest part of their life here as it was in the eastern part of the state, and I remember well being a farmer's helper or probably hindrance as I was growing up.

Just a little about 'em..

Jill

Cary High grad dies in single-vehicle wreck

By LORENZO PEREZ, Staff Writer

WILSON -- An 18-year-old Cary High School graduate and star athlete was killed in a single-vehicle wreck Tuesday afternoon as he drove home from Greenville.

News of Tyson Joseph Whittington's death spread rapidly Wednesday, as former classmates, teammates, coaches and teachers reached out to each other and Whittington's family to share their grief.

A 2001 graduate of Cary High, Whittington was an All-Conference quarterback last fall, as well as the Tri-Eight 4A Co-Offensive Player of the Year. Whittington also played on Cary High's varsity basketball team.

Friends and family said Whittington had gone to Greenville to visit friends at East Carolina University. Tuesday afternoon, he was driving back alone when he apparently lost control of his Honda Passport.

At 12:31 p.m. Tuesday, Whittington was driving west on U.S. 264 north of Sims when his vehicle ran off the road, a dispatcher with the state Highway Patrol said. Whittington's Passport rolled several times and skidded to a stop in the median, the dispatcher said. Whittington was taken to a nearby hospital in Wilson, where he later died.

Whittington's former basketball coach at Cary High, Allan Gustafson Jr., said his phone started ringing about 10 p.m. Tuesday. Several of Whittington's former teammates, including some who had graduated a year ahead of him, came over to the coach's house to talk late into the night.

"Word spread so fast," Gustafson said. "It's really generated an outpouring of love from those who knew him. ... We had nine seniors last year, so it really was a close-knit team."

As many as 150 well-wishers, many of them former classmates, came by the Whittington family's home to offer their condolences Wednesday, his family said.

Whittington didn't just socialize with jocks, his friends said. He had friends from one end of the high school to the other.

"You could name every clique, and he belonged to it," said Andrew Donovan, a basketball teammate and friend who drove Whittington home from practice for three years. "Everybody liked Tyson. Everybody had an affiliation with him."

Donovan said Whittington was a generous friend who often treated his friends to pizza or a night at the movies.

Tall and lanky, Whittington used to crack up his friends by flexing his muscles. During the warm-ups before every basketball game, Whittington would hike up his shorts, yank his socks up high and wear a headband to lighten the mood.

"He could always make you laugh if you were having a bad day," said Marcus Upchurch, 18, a basketball teammate.

Whittington planned to attend Wake Technical Community College for at least a year and had dreams of eventually walking on to N.C. State's football team, friends and family said.

Ron W. Pendergraft, Cary High's football coach, said Whittington was a strong leader for his young varsity squad last year.

"I was really wanting to see him go to the next level," Pendergraft said. "He had the arm, he had the vision. ... He was just starting to see his potential."

Some of Whittington's former classmates from his graduating class returned to Cary High School on Wednesday to mourn. His younger sister, Ashley Whittington, is a sophomore there this year.

Tuesday afternoon, Whittington's family was at the hospital in Wilson when he died.

Eddie Whittington, Tyson's father, said Ashley recalled the label she carried as a Cary High freshman.

"She said, 'All last year I was known as Tyson's little sister. And that's the most wonderful thing I could be known as.' "

Compassion United Six at a Deadly Crossroads
By MOLLY HENNESSY-FISKE, BENJAMIN NIOLET AND MARGIE FISHMAN, Staff Writers

RALEIGH -- It began as a collision of SUVs at a darkened crossroads that drew six helpful souls Saturday night, until Larry Veeder's white van barreled out of the darkness.

On Sunday, investigators charged Veeder, 32, with drunken driving and involuntary manslaughter -- six counts.

Troopers called the crash at N.C. 54 and Nowell Road the Triangle's worst in years. Five people were killed at the intersection, their bodies strewn across the road. A sixth died on the way to the hospital.

"It was just a horrific scene," said Sgt. Everett Clendenin of the state Highway Patrol.

By Sunday, troopers had a clearer picture of what brought each of the dead and injured to the scene shortly after 8:45 p.m. the night before.

Troopers said that Baron A. Fulk, a 20-year-old N.C. State sophomore, ran a stop sign as he pulled his green Chevrolet Blazer onto N.C. 54 and was struck by a silver Blazer driven by Martha P. West, 40, of Marble in Cherokee County. Neither had any passengers.

Robert Alfaro Jr., 46, and wife Gene-Marie Louise Alfaro, 48, of Waxhaw, in town for N.C. State's parents weekend, stopped to help. So did two alumni on their way home from the football game at Carter-Finley Stadium: Dennis Wayne Bowes, 28, a financial planner from Cary, and Bryan Matthew Tutor, 29, a heating and air conditioning repairman from Coats.

Nolan Phillips Myers, 18, a Campbell University freshman from Minnesota, was also headed home from the game when he stopped.

Christopher Clemons, 41, heard the accident from his home on nearby Lincolnville Road and pedaled over on his bicycle.

Veeder, who works at Professional Paint and Sheetrock in Raleigh, was driving east on N.C. 54 (also known as Chapel Hill Road) -- troopers are trying to figure out how fast -- when he struck the group, Clendenin said.

Tim Parry, 23, an N.C. State senior, watched the collision. He was behind the cars of a few victims, who had parked short of the stop sign on Nowell Road.

"I noticed out of the corner of my eye the white work van, and I thought 'Why doesn't he slow down? Doesn't he see this SUV in the middle of the road?' " Parry said. He listened for screeching tires but heard none, and then the bodies flew through the air.

As one of his passengers dialed 911, Parry and the two others jumped out to help the injured.

"All we heard was moaning and yelling and screaming," he said.

Careful to stay clear of the road, Parry said he quickly discovered a fellow student had just seen his parents killed.

Early suspicions -

Troopers suspected Veeder was drunk when they arrived. He had alcohol on his breath, his eyes were glassy and his voice slurred, according to Wake magistrate's records. He refused to take a breath-alcohol test, so while the dead were taken to the state medical examiner's office in Chapel Hill and the injured to WakeMed and Rex hospitals, Veeder went to Wake County jail.

Veeder was being held in lieu of $120,000 bail late Sunday, scheduled to appear in court by this afternoon. Court papers Sunday did not list an attorney representing him.

Veeder has previous convictions for aiding and abetting drunken driving in 1990 and failing to comply with license restrictions in 1994. He pleaded guilty to driving without a license in 1992.

Mourning, praying

None of the crash victims was autopsied Sunday. Staff at the medical examiner's office could tell from a visual examination that five of the victims died from blunt force trauma. They had yet to examine Clemons' body.

Clemons, who worked for a road-striping company, did not grab identification before he went to the crash scene, and he went unidentified until relatives were called to WakeMed on Sunday. They knew him by the tattoo on his left shoulder: "Agnes," a memorial to his mother.

Christopher Alfaro, the N.C. State freshman who was with his parents at the crash, wept in a police car at the scene before returning to his dorm, roommate Jason Schaefer of Matthews said. The computer sciences major set out Sunday morning with his twin brother, Robert Alfaro, also a student at the university, to meet a third younger brother at home near Charlotte, Schaefer said.

Also Sunday, Martha West was released from Rex Hospital, according to state Highway Patrol Sgt. Barry Hower. Efforts to reach her failed.

Fulk, the driver of the green Blazer, was conscious and in serious condition at WakeMed. Parents Joseph and Dianne Fulk of Asheville and brother Joe Fulk, 26, were with him. The family chose not to discuss the crash.

"They just wish prayers instead of press," said the Rev. Paul Christy of Sylva, who was with the family Sunday and recently succeeded Joseph Fulk as pastor of First United Methodist Church in Sylva, near Asheville.

Investigators had not filed charges against Fulk late Sunday, but Clendenin said troopers were investigating how fast he was driving and whether alcohol played a role in the initial crash.

A classmate who visited Fulk in the hospital Sunday said he was driving home from visiting a friend in Raleigh and on his way to meet more friends when the crash occurred. Senior Chiao Cheng said she did not think Fulk had been drinking.

Friends offer support -

Veeder was a regular at Sadlack's Heroes, a Hillsborough Street bar and sandwich shop where he was known as "Blinker." Many said Sunday night that Veeder is a gentle, generous person with a stock of jokes and a repertoire of sleight-of-hand tricks. He painted children's faces at Sadlack's on Halloween. He is a former chimney sweep and a professional clown who juggled and played the ukulele, the blues harmonica and squeezebox.

Veeder is known for wearing hats, including porkpies and fedoras. The hats, the instruments, the tricks and the corny jokes define his personality, said Peter Eichenberger, a columnist for the Independent Weekly.

"The ukulele just kind of suits this goofy, gentle nature he has," Eichenberger said.

His friends at Sadlack's wrote a note on a message board Sunday: "Hey, turn your sadness and concern into support for one of 'ours' who surely needs it NOW! Write a letter of support, love and of friendship. It will help him greatly and it will help you in your dealings with grief and sorrow."

"Out of all the people I know, Blinker is the most tragic person for this to happen to because he really wouldn't hurt a fly. He's a gentle-natured, gentle person," said Ryan Carlson, 34.

Patrons said Sunday that Veeder had not been in the bar before the accident.

By Sunday, much of the physical wreckage at the crash site had been removed. There were small reminders: a tangle of wires wrapped in a dandelion, shards of taillights, a shattered side-view mirror and a silver Chevrolet emblem. Passing cars sped over chalk outlines that straddled the middle of the road.

Tim Parry, the student who saw the crash, has had trouble sleeping. He wondered Sunday what Veeder was thinking as he sat in jail.

"Does he have any idea of what he's done?" Parry said. "The vision of the bodies -- that's pretty hard to get rid of."

Bryan Matthew Tutor
By CHRIS SERRES, Staff Writer

Sue Parrish fought back tears Sunday as she leafed through an album containing photos of her son-in-law, Bryan Matthew Tutor. In one photo, Tutor's 5-month-old son, Carson Brantley, is wearing the same Christmas outfit -- a red jumper with an elf's hat -- that Bryan wore when he was an infant.

"It just breaks my heart that Bryan didn't live to see his son enjoy that first Christmas," said

Parrish, who lives in Angier.

Life was snatched from Tutor as everything appeared to be going his way. The 29-year-old had just found a new career repairing heating and air- conditioning systems. He was working part time while completing courses at Wake Technical Community College.

With his shaved head, goatee and 200-pound frame, Tutor might have looked intimidating. When friends gathered at his house to watch college football games, Tutor would usually cheer the loudest.

"You didn't want to be near that guy when N.C. State was losing," said Trae Shelton, 26, of Dunn.

Yet underneath that bravado was a "warm, kindhearted person" who cared deeply for his family.

Just a month before his death, Bryan and Mandy Tutor celebrated the anniversary of their first date. They met at the State Fair seven years ago.

Despite work and school, Tutor always tried to make it home to give his son a bath. When his wife went out, Tutor could be found sleeping next to his son on their bed.

He was also a great cook. When family and friends gathered at the Tutor home, Bryan did the cooking. His favorite dish was a powerful chili conjured up from onions, hamburger and hot peppers.
