Notes for JOSEPH DUPREE:

Obituary courtesy of Billy Yeargin

Appeared in the Zion's Landmark. The Landmark is a publication distributed by the Primitive Baptist Organization. The Obituary was written by Elder Joseph E. Adams who was Eliza Jane's brother.

By request of the wife of Joseph Dupree and his children, I send you the following obituary.

The subject of this notice was born in Johnston County, North Carolina May, 30, 1838, and departed this life January 15, 1905, in the 67th year of his age. He was first married to Eliza Jane Adams, sister of the writer who passed from the scenes of earthly cares and trials some years ago. To this union were born six sons and two daughters, all living and married except two oldest daughters, Nancy Catharine and youngest son Henry Q. Dupree, 21 years old.

Brother Dupree was married the second time in 1901 to sister Sally Johnson, who is still living. He united with the Primitive Baptist church at Sandy Grove, Johnston County, North Carolina Saturday before the third Sunday in June, 1872, of which church he was afterwards appointed Deacon, which office he faithfully filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to the church until 1902, when a difficulty occurred between him and his brother. W. H. Dupree, in regards to a trival matter about their hogs, of which Joseph tried to labor with the brother according to the scriptures but failing to gain him, brought the matter to the church and after much wrangling, the church withdrew from them both after which Joseph made application for restoration making acknowledgments but the church or some of them would not hear, nor forgive him and he suffered a good deal and remained out as long as he lived, but never forsook the church nor the cause he dearly loved-attending the meetings when able. He had been greatly afflicted for many years with cough and lung trouble but suffered patiently til the end came the 3d Sunday evening, 15th of January at 3 p.m. That morning, he shaved himself, changed his clothes but was too feeble to attend the services at Sandy Grove that day. He went out to his dinner and eat as usual, after dinner, wrote a letter and put it in an envelope and his daughter said to him to wait until Quinton, his son came back to back the letter for him and he said he thought he would which were the last words he spoke; sitting in his chair by the fire, his daughter on one side and his wife, Sister Sally, on the other, they heard him make an unusual noise and his daughter looked towards him and saw he was giving away; went behind his chair took hold of him, putting her arms around him and his wife getting to him about the same time, he died in a minute or two without a struggle in his daughters arms. Sister Sally, his wife took some quilts and pillows and they laid him down and his daughter left to carry the news.

He was buried on Tuesday evening after, A great many people were there to witness the last tribute of respect to one whom they esteemed as a husband, father, and friend. The writer made some remarks at the grave and read some appropriate hymns and offered prayer. Thus has passed away from earthly scenes of suffering and afflictions to that upper and better kingdom, one whom I had known well for 30 years as a member and brother beloved and while he had been evil spoken of and hard things said of him, I had unshaken and unbroken confidence, love and fellowship for him as a child of God and that he died in the precious faith of our Lord Jesus Christ. In conclusion, let me say to his dear bereaved and lonely wife and weeping and sorrowing children, weep not as others without hope. May the good Lord bless you with the like precious faith and hope is my prayer.

Notes for ELIZA JANE ADAMS:

The attached obituaries of Liza Jane Adams Dupree appeared in the Zion Landmark - one written by her brother, Joseph E. Adams and one by her husband, Joseph Dupree. (Courtesy of Bily Yeargin)

The subject of this notice, Eliza Jane Adams Dupree, was a dear sister of mine in the flesh, but more dear in that spiritual relation to our dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, as I hope she was one of the Lord's poor and precious jewels. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." We sorrow not as those without hope. We believe our dear sister died or fell asleep in Jesus, and blessed are all such.

She possessed a meek and quiet spirit, was a faithful and devoted member of the church and delighted to have the brethren and sisters at her house, and especially the ministering brethren of whom she had a goodly number to stop with her. Many will remember her. We all miss her, but none so much as her dear husband, our brother Joseph Dupree. A good wife is of the Lord. He giveth and taketh away and we should bow in humble submission to his holy will and say blessed be his Holy name forever and ever. He doeth all things well and for the best. May the good Lord comfort the hearts of the bereaved and reconcile us all more and more to his righteous will in all things. In hope

JE ADAMS

It is with a sad and sorrowful heart, that I attempt to write for publication a notice of the death of my dear, kind and loving wife. She was the daughter of Joseph and Tiliatha Adams. She was born Feb. 10th, 1839 and died Nov. 23rd, 1898, making her stay on earth 59 years, 9 months and 13 days. She united with the church at Sandy Grove, Johnston Co. N.C. on Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in April 1888 and was baptized the next day by Elder J.T. Coats. She was a good and faithful member till her death. Her disease was typhoid fever.

We were happily united in marriage the 29th day of March 1865. She was a good, kind and loving wife, a good mother and mother-in-law, was the mother of eleven children, 3 dead, eight living, 6 boys and 2 girls, and seven grandchildren. She left 5 sisters and 2 brothers, a host of brethren, sisters and friends and myself to mourn our loss, but have good reason to believe our loss is her eternal gain. How sad it is to part with dear companions and friends. Oh! How much we miss her, but we all feel that our loss is her gain-desire to be submissive to the Lord's will. She said to me on the Sunday before she died that she was willing for the Lord to take her and dispose of her according to his will. We feel that it was his will to take her to himself and that she is now at rest where there is no more death, no more parting, where all is peace and happiness, there to sing God's praise for ever and ever, where we will see Jesus and be like him, in the prayer of her bereaved husband in hope. Brother Gold and all brethren, pray for me.

Hi Deb,

I am sending you a transcript of Eugenia "Jane" Stancil Dupree Dupree's obituary written by her grandson. It helps explain and confirm that she was indeed married to 2 different WH Duprees. The first was the son of Thomas & Allie Dupree and the second was his first cousin, the son of James and Grace Dupree.

I hope all your family is well,
Denise

In Memorium

Mrs. Eugenia Dupree, wife of Mr. W. H. Dupree, was first married to Mr. William H. Dupree and in this union two children were born – Mr. Anguish Dupree and Miss Fannie Dupree. In the war of 1860-1865 he volunteered to serve his country and during this struggle he died, leaving behind to mourn, the poor widow and two children. After the war she was again married to another William H. Dupree and to this union three children were born, one dying in infancy, the other two being Misses Mary Dupree and Saphronia Dupree.

On June the 1st, 1915, Grandma stepped from the door and missing the step fell and was badly crippled, confining her to her bed and has not been able to turn in bed since for two years and five months, when on the 18th day of October, 1917, she passed away in the presence of her children, grandchildren and many friends. She was nearing her eightieth birthday when death overtook her.

It was sorrowful indeed to give up our loved one and to realize that she could not be spared to us any longer. Yet when we think seriously of the toils, sorrows, heartaches and pains of this life we cannot wish her back. We cannot doubt but that Heaven with all its joys is hers, for she left a bright evidence that all was well with her.

Grandma had a sweet disposition, was tender, loving and kind to everyone she met. To know her was to love her – the influence of her beautiful life, like the fragrance of a sweet flower, will always remain with us. We feel that she is sweetly resting with her Father in Heaven and will rest there in spirit until the resurrection morn, when her body will be raised from the grave in the likeness of the Savior and when soul and body will be reunited to live forever and forever more in the presence of the Lord.

Grandma leaves behind to mourn their loss a husband, two children, Mrs. A. R. Stancil and Mr. W. A. Dupree, fourteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren, besides a host of friends.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
HER GRANDSON – J.E.D.

Angier's Dupree Reaches Century Mark
By Jamie Strickland

June 28 marked a century of life for one of Angier's long-time residents and was a time to celebrate the past 100 years. Ruth Adams Dupree was surrounded by her family and friends during a luncheon and party at her home on N.C. 210 where she has lived for the past 65 years. Born in the Kennebec area, Mrs. Dupree married William Dupree at the age of 20 and had a son, William Dupree Jr., in 1928. Her grandchildren, William Dupree III and Ruth Petra, hosted the party at her home June 28.

Mrs. Dupree spent the day socializing with friends and family who showed up to congratulate her, present gifts and enjoy the food, cake, homemade ice cream and company. Angier Mayor Wanda Gregory presented her with a certificate of congratulations on behalf of the town. Among the gifts Mrs. Dupree received was a hand-picked bouquet of fresh flowers from family friend Wayne Coats, who joined in on the celebration.

Mrs. Dupree and her husband farmed in the Angier area prior to her husband's death in 1967.

She is a founding member of Angier Primitive Baptist Church.

Ms. Petra, Mrs. Dupree's granddaughter who now lives in Bahama, N.C. , grew up next door to her grandmother and shared memories of life on the farm and learning how to cook under Mrs. Dupree's experienced instruction. Ms. Petra said her grandmother has always been there for her and taught her some of life's most valuable lessons.

"She's always been the constant," Ms. Petra said, having lost both her mother and father in the years past.

Mrs. Dupree is the oldest of five children, four of whom are still living and are in their 90s. Two of her siblings, Ruby Jones and Harland Adams, were there to celebrate their sister's birthday.

Mrs. Dupree makes the third long-time Angier resident to turn 100 years old in the past two years.

On Dec. 8, 2004 Wiley Stout Currin, a former school teacher in the area, celebrated her 100th birthday, and on Jan. 15, Alice Dupree Raynor, the oldest member of Angier United Methodist Church, became a centenarian.

North Carolina. He was born 06 Oct 1906, and died 29 Sep 1971 in Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina.

Notes for ALICE NETTRAL DUPREE:
Dunn Daily Record
1/18/2005

One of Angier's lifelong residents celebrated 100 years of life Sunday with a party fit for a queen. Fittingly, Alice Dupree Raynor even wore a crown at her birthday party, after turning 100 on Jan. 15.

Mayor Wanda Gregory presented her with a resolution of congratulations enacted by the board of commissioners, U.S. Rep. Bob Etheridge offered his best wishes, and the Angier Twirlers square danced, entertaining the crowds of people who turned out to celebrate.

Mrs. Raynor certainly has plenty to celebrate. She was a charter member of Harnett County's Retired Senior Volunteer Program and of the Daughters of the Eastern Star. She has a long resume of service to the community, including being voted Woman of the Year in 1998, and has been a member of Angier Methodist Church almost since its inception.

"She was involved in senior programs since before we had a program for seniors," Rep. Etheridge said. "Whenever things were happening in Angier, she was behind it in one way or another. I think she's a good example of if you live a positive life, good things will happen," he said.

Mrs. Raynor is well remembered for her long years of service in the community, and her knitting, crocheting, sewing and quilting has been admired for years. In recent years, she crocheted American flags following the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11 and distributed them among churches, homes and local businesses.

Mrs. Raynor shared some of her memories about growing up in Angier. She remembers knitting sweaters to send overseas to the soldiers fighting during World War II and hand making most of her children's clothing.

"I've lived here all my life just about," she said. "I've been a member of Angier Methodist Church for near 85 years."

Mrs. Raynor remembers growing up back when roads were rough dirt paths and horse and buggy were the means of transportation.

"I've been to Raleigh on a horse mule and buggy," she said. "We'd go to the stables and put our horse and mule in and they'd feed them corn and you'd stay until you were ready to go and go get your mule."

Mrs. Raynor said on trips to Raleigh as a young girl she enjoyed shopping for clothes and other items at stores like Charles' and Hudson and Belk. Mrs. Raynor grew up making many of her own clothes, however.

"When she was very young she said her dad would come to town in Angier and buy the most expensive material. He'd come home and throw it in her lap and tell her to make anything she wanted out of it," her daughter Martha Gale said. "She's an only child. She's spoiled, and we've kept it up," Ms. Gale said jokingly.

Mrs. Raynor remembers when Angier Methodist Church held services in a white house on Dunn Street in Angier. She and her family later lived in the house after the church relocated to a larger facility.

Married to James Broughton Raynor in 1928, Raynor had three children, Julia Thomas, Martha Gale and Kent Raynor, who died of cancer several years ago. Her daughter-in-law, Wandra Raynor, co-hosted her birthday party. Julia was named after Mrs. Raynor's mother and Martha after her husband's mother. Mrs. Raynor now has eight grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

A hip injury sent her to Oak Hill Living Center after living at home for 98 years. She said she believes the secret to a long life is to not complain and to eat well, and said she is most proud of waking up every morning and knowing who she is.

Alice Dupree Raynor, 101, of Oak Hill Assisted Living, Angier, went to meet her maker on January 16, 2006. She was an only child, born to Julia Pollard Dupree of Coats and Ira Dupree of Willow Spring, on January 18, 1905.

Funeral services will be held 2:00 p.m. Wednesday at the Angier United Methodist Church with Eastern Star Rites. Burial to follow in the Angier Memorial Cemetery.

PATROL OFFICIALS IDENTIFY VICTIM OF DEADLY CRASH RUDY STEVE HOLLAND DIES TUESDAY AFTER A CAR COLLIDES WITH HIS MOTORCYCLE.

Highway Patrol officials have identified the man killed Tuesday after his motorcycle collided with a car about five miles south of Asheboro. Rudy Steve Holland, 47, of 440 U.S. 74 Business in Bostic, was traveling south on N.C. 49 at about 4 p.m. when a car driven by Sidney Raeford McNeill, 48, of 7646 Ferguson Road, Liberty, crossed the center line and hit him. Holland died a short while later on the way to the hospital, authorities said.

Highway Patrol officials did not release Holland's name Tuesday because his family had not been notified of his death. Holland was riding a 1998 Harley-Davidson motorcycle. McNeill was traveling north in a Ford.

"The guy in the Ford went left of center and hit the motorcycle in the side," said Highway Patrol Sgt. W.K. Smith.

Smith said McNeill had been drinking near the time of the accident but was not impaired. Charges are pending against McNeill.

"It was a straight stretch of highway," Smith said. "Mr. McNeill just traveled across the center line."

Holland was driving his motorcycle at the speed limit - 55 mph - at the time of the wreck, Smith said. He also was wearing a helmet. McNeill was traveling 60 mph at the time of the accident. He did not sustain any serious injuries. Smith said Holland died from blood loss. Holland's leg was amputated during the wreck.
