James Wright Barnes

Bryan-Lee Funeral Home Notice

03/17/2007

James W. Barnes, 81, of Raleigh peacefully passed away on Friday, March 16, 2007 at Blue Ridge Health Care after a courageous 16 month battle with complications from a stroke. He was born on March 6, 1926 in the Harnett county community of Barclaysville to Everett and Minnie Fish Barnes. He was predeceased by his loving wife of 50 years, Marjorie Morgan Barnes, his parents, as well as his brother, Larry E. Barnes.

Jimmie graduated from Coats High School and King's Business College and worked for over 40 years in the office of the Raleigh soybean processing plant of The Buckeye Oil and Cottonseed Company, Ralston Purina Company, and Cargill Inc. He served as a Sergeant in the United States Army in Washington, D.C. during the Korean War.

Jimmie possessed a great love for God, his family, his church, and his community and was an active and lifelong member of Westminster Presbyterian Church, having served as a Deacon, Elder, Sunday School Director and as President of the Westminster Foundation. He regularly attended various events at the Whitaker Mill Senior Center and was always the Number One fan at ballgames, band concerts, and school activities for his beloved grandsons.

He is survived by his son, Michael Barnes and wife Kathy, two special grandsons, Joshua and Matthew of Raleigh, his brother Neal A. Barnes and wife Betty Sue of Petersburg, Virginia and a loving extended family.

The funeral service will be held at 2:00 PM on Tuesday, March 20, 2007 at Westminster Presbyterian Church. The family will receive relatives and friends one hour prior to the service in the church parlor. Burial to follow at Montlawn Memorial Park.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Dr. Steven Liebowitz, Dr. John Lue and the caregivers in the Transitional Unit at Blue Ridge Heath Care for the wonderful and caring manner and support they have provided over the past 16 months.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Westminster Presbyterian Church, 301 E. Whitaker Mill Rd., Raleigh, N.C. 27608. Arrangements by Bryan-Lee Funeral Home, 831 Wake Forest Rd, Raleigh, N.C.; (919) 832-8225.
