

Bobby Dallas Haswell

Herald-Sun, The (Durham, NC)

August 10, 2006

DURHAM -- Mr. Bobby Dallas Haswell, 75, of 3415 Ogburn Ct., went home to his Lord Jesus Christ and his beloved daughter, Debbie, on Monday evening, August 7, 2006. Mr. Haswell was a native and lifelong resident of Durham, the son of the late Theron Dallas Haswell and Bernice Jackson Haswell.

He formerly owned and operated Bobby Haswell's Home Improvements. He was a member of Angier Avenue Baptist Church and the Cabin Class, where he served as a deacon and taught Sunday School. Mr. Haswell was a lifetime member of the Durham Elks Lodge #568, past Exalted Ruler and named Elk of the year 2001-2002. He was a member of the Broken Anchor Boat Club, the Thursday Morning Breakfast Club at Bob Evans Restaurant and the Bridge Husband's Dinner Group. He also volunteered at the V.A. Hospital.

He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Deborah Haswell Scheffell and a brother, Douglas Haswell.

He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Janet Fisher Haswell, one son, Rodney D. Haswell and wife, Mary, of Myrtle Beach, S.C.; son-in-law, Carl Scheffell, of Ellicott City, Md.; brother-in-law, Ronnie Fisher; sister-in-law, Yvonne Fisher, both of Durham; and three grandchildren, Kendall Scheffell, Shanon Haswell and Christian Haswell.

A celebration of life service will be held on Thursday at 11 a.m. at Angier Avenue Baptist Church with the Rev. Clarence Parrish officiating. Burial will be in Maplewood Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers will be the Cabin Class and members of the Durham Elks Lodge #568.

The family will receive friends Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at Hudson Funeral Home and other times at the home, 3415 Ogburn Court. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Angier Avenue Baptist Church, 2101 Angier Ave., Durham, NC 27703. Arrangements will be handled by Hudson Funeral Home, Durham.

Deborah Haswell Scheffel

News & Observer, The (Raleigh, NC)

March 15, 2000

ELLCOTT CITY, MD - Deborah (Haswell) Scheffel resident of Ellicott City, Md., formerly of Durham NC went home to be with her Lord on March 7, 2000 after an extended battle with Pancreatic Cancer.

Mrs. Scheffel was a 1970 graduate of Jordan High School and attended UNC - Pembroke. Not only was she a homemaker, devoted daughter, wife, and mother she also was an active member of Grace Community Church, the Mom's in Touch Prayer Group, and the Personalities of the Bible Prayer Group in Ellicott City.

Surviving are her husband, Carl Scheffel and daughter Kendall Scheffel of Ellicott City; her parents Bobby and Janet Haswell; a brother Rodney Haswell (Mary), her maternal Grandmother, Reba Fisher all of Durham. Also surviving are two step-children; Carl Scheffel, Jr., and Lorie Scheffel Lee; and six grandchildren.

A celebration of her life was held on March 9, 2000 at Grace Community Church. For those wishing, memorials may be made to the American Center Society or Hospice of Howard County, 5537 Twin Knolls Road, Suite 433 Columbia, Maryland 21045.

Ercell Haswell Heath

Herald-Sun, The (Durham, NC)
August 11, 1995

Mrs. Ercell Haswell Heath, 82, of 1509 Glendale Ave., died Thursday morning in Durham Regional Hospital. A native of Wake County, she has lived in Durham most of her life. Mrs. Heath was employed with the Duke Auxiliary until her retirement. She was a member of Grace Baptist Church and the Esther Bible Class.

Surviving are her husband, P. Michael Heath of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Hill Dinger of Roanoke VA; three stepsons, Rev. Larry Heath of Concord, Rev. Jack Heath of Greensboro and Gary Heath of Marshall TX; eight grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be conducted at 2 PM Saturday in the Howerton & Bryan Chapel by Dr. Walter Isley. Burial will be in Maplewood Cemetery. Memorials may be made to Grace Baptist Church.

The family will receive visitors 7-9 PM today at Howerton & Bryan Funeral Home.